Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

I live, no longer I, but Christ lives in me.

— Galatians 2:20

Dear Parishioners,

This Sunday is a very special day for FATHERS. We are so proud of them not only as effective instruments of our lives but most importantly for rearing us as God meant us to be. Happy Fathers Day.

On remembering them in our prayers and masses, we are going to bless them in this weekends Sunday Liturgy. Our newly established Knights of Columbus are giving out candy bars after all the masses. Please take note of their information drive as you receive the candy. We need more leaders and members in our parish's K of C.

This Sunday we celebrate the Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary time and calling us to acknowledge our sins and we are reminded to grow in appreciation of God's love and mercy and have a sense of peace.

It is unfortunate that many of the current cultures tend to no longer have the sense of sin. Certainly, an inaccurate sense of guilt—feeling guilty about things that are not your fault might not even be wrong can be harmful to a person. But the opposite error is living as if there's no such thing as sin is what we more often see today.

So allow me to review: God loves you. God gives you life. Yet all of us fall short at times in showing God the gratitude he deserves. We are wounded by original sins and vulnerable to committing personal sins in our thoughts and in our words, in what we do and what we fail to do. It is not healthy to deny this fact.

When we have a healthy sense of sin, though by the way, a phrase like healthy sense of sin is shocking to many in our times, we can take positive action to change our lives for the better. We more deeply appreciate God's mercy, patience and forgiveness. We grow in awareness and understanding of His deep love for us. We learn how to live in peace.

With a healthy sense of sins and a healthy appreciation of God's mercy we can persevere in our suffering and experience deeper joy when he mercifully grants moments of wholesome pleasure and authentic communion with other people.

Taking some from our readings this Sunday, David acknowledged his sin and felt the relief of God's forgiveness. Paul appreciated Jesus' love and sacrifice in ways that inspire us to this day. The woman who washed and anointed Jesus' feet experienced his forgiveness and salvation. May we do the same by God's grace today and always.

May God bless us all.

Father Angelito

Throughout the Diocese each December, Christmas Carol Festivals are being held with increasing popularity, and we would like St. Catherine's to join the throng. Plans are already underway, we have set a date for the first week in December; however, we are still in need of someone to coordinate the various efforts and bring it all together.
