Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

All things work for good for those who love God.

— Romans 8:28a

Dear Parishioners,

With the experience we had this past winter season, I guess everyone would agree with me that we deserve the kind of summer we are having so far, a great chance for us to go to the shore. We are so blessed, considering the proximity to our area and having fun together with our brothers and sisters. A wonderful time also to invite our friends for a visit and similarly for us to have some reunion time with our family members as well.

Time flies when we are having fun, that's what they always say. We just have to cherish every moment of time and don't be in a hurry. However, I must remind the parents as well as our religious education students to register for CCD for the school year 2014-2015 if they have not done so. Our appeal also goes to anyone who could volunteer to be a catechist or an aide. The young people of the parish need your help to form and teach them on their journey of faith. The parish community appreciates whatever you can offer to us.

A week from now, at the August 2/3 weekend Masses, we are going to have a Mission Appeal on behalf of the Pontifical Institute for Foreign Missions. Rev. Fr. Joseph Ngidjoi, PIME, will be the missionary to present the mission appeal. He was ordained a PIME priest in 2009. He was assigned to PIME's U.S. Region and worked as Associate Pastor at Holy Trinity Student Parish (at Eastern Michigan University) and St. John the Baptist in Ypsilanti, Michigan, from 2010-2013. In 2013, Fr. Joseph began his ministry at St. Ann's Church in East Harlem, New York City. Fr. Joseph speaks French, Italian and English.

As your pastor, I thank you in advance for your generosity and participation in the missions. Let us also offer our special prayers for the success of their mission as they continue to proclaim the Good News of Jesus throughout the ends of the earth.

The Gospel's theme this Sunday, Jesus speaks of the Kingdom of God as something valuable to pursue at all cost. The value about which Jesus speaks is not material, but spiritual; not earthly, but heavenly. Absolutely, God's Kingdom is the greatest treasure, and with the wisdom of the Holy Spirit we come to recognize this and become a part of it.

May God bless us,
Father Angelito

Zion in the Old Testament was the site of the Temple of Jerusalem, the seat of worship and government. The New Testament Zion symbolized the New Jerusalem, our heavenly home.
