Dear Parishioners,

As we know there is a multitude of things going on in our Diocese as well as in the parish. In order to be updated and be informed we have to read the Diocesan Newspaper, namely "The Monitor." We can also look at the diocesan website and also our own parish website. Let us be an integral and vital part of our Church.

We welcome at the 4:30 PM Mass Saturday, Deborah, our RCIA candidate, on her First Scrutiny as we proceed with the Rites of RCIA. We credit our team and the parishioners as well, as we support and pray for Deborah.

Everyone is invited to participate in our Lenten journey with the simple soup suppers in the Parish Hall sponsored by our kindhearted and generous parish ministries. Following this fellowship are our Stations of the Cross in the Church, led by one of our Deacons. Let us be one in faith, prayer and the breaking of the bread as we build our community and God's kingdom.

Our responsorial psalm for this Sunday's liturgy is "the Lord is kind and merciful." Evidently God is kind and merciful to us in so many ways. One way is the fact that He is calling us for renewal and repentance. As it said in the Book of Revelation: "Whoever is dear to me I reprove and chastise. Be earnest about it, therefore, Repent! Here I stand, knocking at the door, I will enter his house and have supper with him, and he with me." These verses assume that we all have room for growth and improvement. God asks that of us and he also gives us the help we need to be better. He is so kind to us. He would not be kind if he did not stimulate us to keep on improving ourselves. The fact that he challenges us to change comes from his love as a caring parent. The parable of the Fig Tree in today's Gospel is a call to live a positive and hopeful life. That is loving God and others.

At the beginning of the Gospel, Jesus had an interesting conversation that is all about some tragic events. A lot of people think that sometimes when bad things happen to someone, it is a way of God's punishment. Jesus says that it is not always true. He does not try to explain suffering here, however, he is telling us not to be complacent, which sometimes we are. We might say that, "since nothing bad is happening to me, then it must be because I am good." He reminds us we all need to repent, and to work to be better than we are.

As we mentioned before, today we have the first of the three Scrutinies. Our parish community prays for those who are preparing to come to full communion with the Church. It is also a great invitation for all of us as we come to Easter Sunday so that we are better able to live the Christian way of life. We must always keep in mind that at all times, whether God is comforting us, forgiving us, healing us, blessing us, encouraging us or correcting us, the Lord is kind and merciful. Amen.

May God bless us,
Father Angelito

3/6/16 Weekly & Catholic Relief Services

Next week, our parish will take up The Catholic Relief Services Collection. This collection supports six Catholic agencies that touch more than 100 million lives around the world. The funds from this collection help to provide food to the hungry, support to displaced refugees, and Christ's love and respect to all people. Next week, please give generously to The Catholic Relief Services Collection and help Jesus in disguise.

2017 Mass Book Opening

The 2017 Mass Book will open on Friday, April 8, 2016 at 10:00 AM. Please come to room 10. You must be present to request Masses. Please realize there will be a long wait. If you do not require a specific date, the Mass book will re-open on Tuesday, April 12th and thereafter.

NEW for 2017

In addition to the Mass Intentions, there will be the Sanctuary Light, St. Catherine of Siena Votive Light, and the Immaculate Heart of Mary Votive Light. These candles are located on the right side of the altar. You will be able to have one of these candles burn for special intentions for one week in memory of a deceased family member, friend or for a "living" intention. These intentions will be announced in the bulletin but not during Masses. The cost for Mass Intentions and Lights are $10 each. Padded Mass cards are an additional $5.

Our Pastor, Father Angelito, has determined that due to the rising incidence of zika virus and other communicable diseases, it is prudent to distribute Holy Communion under the form of bread only, and to omit the exchange of peace among members of the congregation. These changes, which are consistent with the Roman Missal, began on Ash Wednesday and will continue until conditions improve.

St. Catherine's Lend a Helping Hand - The poor and homeless of Monmouth County are in need of vital supplies including: new socks, t-shirts, and new or lightly used work-gloves, work boots, and sneakers. The greatest need is for men's supplies. Should you prefer not to shop, you may also donate gift cards to Wal-Mart, Bobs or Target. Please place donations in the collection box located in the Narthex. Contact Kris Kulick at (732)-577-5556.

The Rosary Altar Society would like to thank everyone for supporting the Rosary Bake Sale. Your contributions and support are greatly appreciated. Our next meeting is March 16.

Haiti Food Drive for the Missionaries of the Poor

Dear St. Catherine of Siena Parish Community,
We thank you for this opportunity, to make this appeal to provide food for the Missionaries of the Poor in Cap-Haitien, Haiti. At their Asile Communal compound, they take care of 200 men and women, 65 children at their Bethlehem home and 26 HIV patients at their St. Joseph Hospice. In addition to these, the Brothers provide food for the destitute in the surrounding community. Every two weeks, on Wednesdays, about 700 people come to this food line. With your generosity, we hope to put together a container of food for their residents and the local poor. As our Lord says in Matthew's gospel, "Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brethren, you did it to me." On March 12th and 13th, we will be handing out Food Pledge cards after each Mass. We will collect your donations on March 19th and 20th. Thank you and God bless you. Vic Lagdameo and M.O.P. Associates of NJ

Saint Aloysius Church in Jackson, designated a Shrine Church for the Year of Mercy, is offering a pilgrimage - "The Stations of Mercy" which follows the Stations of the Cross in the Church. Each Station of the Cross has an accompanying Station of Mercy from either the Spiritual or Corporal Works of Mercy. There are 7 Spiritual Works of Mercy and 7 Corporal Works of Mercy for a total of 14 Works of Mercy which naturally correspond to the 14 Stations of the Cross. There are also "Stations of Mercy" prayer books available by the first station. Each station will begin with the invocation from the Divine Mercy Chaplet, "Jesus, I trust in You" and will have a meditation on a Work of Mercy. These booklets with the meditations are for those who would like to walk the Stations of Mercy. There are also details about how one can obtain an indulgence on the Bishop's Decree which is posted on the front door of the Church under the "Holy Doors" which have been decorated with the required Coat of Arms of Pope Francis, the Prayer for the Year of Mercy and Bishop O'Connell's Coat of Arms and the Decree officially appointing St. Aloysius as a Shrine Church. Behind the Ambo and the Presiders Chair on the wall are two images for contemplation. One is a reproduction of Rembrandt's "The Return of the Prodigal Son" based on the same scripture passage. Our Holy Father Pope Francis has said that this Gospel account is incorrectly named as it should be called "The parable of the Merciful Father." Keep that in mind. Pope Francis's title for the parable significantly changes the orientation of the message. The Second image is an original acrylic painting of "The Divine Mercy" by John Genard. The hope is that each will hopefully center us during this Year of Mercy.
