Dear Parishioners,

We express our immense gratitude to our parents this Sunday as we set aside this day to honor and remember our fathers. You truly deserve our respect and great appreciation for the care and love and sacrifice you have made for your families. I have an interesting true story to tell you about a family. A Pastor met a woman at whose wedding he officiated years ago. "Does your husband live up to the vows and promises he made to you before you were married?" he asked the woman. "He sure does," She responded quickly. "While we were dating he kept saying he wasn't good enough for me, and he has been proving it ever since." This joke, and kind of line, doesn't apply to any of the men around here today though. Keep in mind you are all wonderful people. There will be a blessing for all the fathers at our weekend Masses. Thank you so much dear fathers and may God bless you. HAPPY FATHER'S DAY.

As we have announced before, the construction of the new Priest Residence has been approved, hence everyone is invited to be there on the site today after the 10 AM Mass for the ground breaking ceremony. Our blessing and prayers are very much needed for the completion of this wonderful project. This will be a great and welcome addition to the parish community. Please be there.

Somebody is going to speak to us before the final blessing at all of the Masses this weekend. He represents the Harbor House Bike Ride and is going to make an appeal to support their project and wonderful endeavor. Please welcome him as we make our generous monetary contributions as our means allow. Thank you so much.

I invite you to reflect on the readings for the 12th Sunday of the Year.

How do you answer Jesus' question, "Who do you say that I am?" Our answers are known more by how we live than by words alone. So I ask, "Who do people say that you are? Do they see Christ clearly enough to answer, 'One of the baptized' or 'Someone clothed with Christ'?" So what does it mean to clothe oneself in Christ? For ages, people have taken clothing as a primary means of self-identity and self-expression as we do today.

But the clothing we put on in baptism is the start of transformation and the beginning of a new identity that supersedes our particular modes of identification. The baptismal garment identifies us not with a tribe but with the anti-tribe, the Church, and calls our categories for identification. The white robe signals that whatever family you came from before, whatever sort of female or male identification, whatever your status, there is a new place of belonging in Christ that transcends all of it. Amen.

May God bless us,
Father Angelito
