FROM THE DESK OF THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

The parish community is happy to welcome Rev. Father Rjoy Ballacillo, as he celebrates our Vigil Saturday Mass which begins at 4:30 PM. He was recently ordained to the Holy Priesthood June 5, 2021, at the Cathedral of St. Mary the Assumption in Trenton, NJ, by our very own Bishop David O'Connell, C.M. Fondly called Father Rjoy, he is currently assigned as a Parochial Vicar at St. Gregory the Great Parish in Hamilton Township, NJ. He will share with us his life experience as Jesus the High Priest called him to the vocation to the priesthood and the response he has made to that divine calling. Despite his very hectic schedule, we are glad he has time to say YES to our invitation. We continue our program by inviting the relatively young priests of the Diocese of Trenton to make us understand, reflect, and discern why and how to become a priest. Let us continue to pray hard for an increase in vocation in the priesthood and religious life to respond to the growing needs of the faithful. Let us express our thanks and gratitude to Father Rjoy as he blesses us with his presence and graces us with the sacred Liturgy he will administer.

With profound joy and immense gratitude as the Holy Father, Pope Francis has established the first World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly on Sunday, July 25, 2021. The Pope affirms the essential value of older persons in our families, our communities, and our Church. We genuinely recognize our grandparents as the fruitful and productive instruments of life, values, faith, and many more. As a parish family, we will say the Novena Prayer for Grandparents and the Elderly beginning this Saturday at the 4:30 Vigil Mass and all the weekend Masses on Sunday and throughout the week on our daily Masses.

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The outbreak of the Covid-19 pandemic has prompted an outpouring of generosity for the poorest people and communities worldwide. As we watch the news and read on the internet, it is incredible how the followers of Christ giving food to hungry people in our time reflect today's Gospel, which demonstrates the compassion of Jesus and God's great power and mercy. This is the only miracle found in all four Gospels, which means an exceptional event. When Jesus received the news of John the Baptist's killing, he and the disciples withdrew by boat to a lonely place by the Sea of Galilee. But thousands of people went after him on foot. So, as he stepped ashore, he saw a large crowd; he took pity on them and healed those who were sick. But he also recognized their hunger, not only for his words but for food. When the disciples attempted to disperse the crowd because the food was scarce, Jesus instructed them to feed the people and then showed them how.

The feeding of the thousands, most likely at least ten thousand, if we take women and children into account, is a favorite Gospel miracle for many. Jesus turned a scarcity of loaves and fish into an abundance of food, but he was not just in the business of feeding others; Jesus also taught others how to feed hungry people. When Jesus encouraged sharing, the generosity of the small boy prompted others to bring out their packed lunches and share with others in a miraculous outpouring of love. We hear that everybody ate as much as they wanted, with leftovers gathered so they would not be wasted.

This remarkable life-affirming story is a wonderful reminder of God's inclusive generosity. Jesus shows compassion for the crowds, caring for their material, as well as spiritual, needs. God asks us to feed people in need too. Notice the Eucharistic overtones here. The gift of the small boy was a ridiculously small amount. However, Jesus is willing to take whatever little we can offer. This beautiful miracle reminds us that we can offer to God all that we are, even if we think it's inadequate, we can trust God to take it, bless it, break it open, and multiply it.

Jesus shows us that when God is with us, there is no such thing as scarcity. We often fear that there will never be enough: never enough money, food, time, space, or love. If we trust in God and behave according to the kingdom values, there will always be enough. Jesus reveals how God is towards us: nourishing, caring, lavish and concerned for our needs. And when God asks us to be a blessing to others, we must have faith to respond. Even a simple act can have a significant impact on many lives. Let us experience God's presence in the gift of the natural world, our shared meals, conversations with friends and families and friends, and support for hungry people. Let us share with those hungry in the world, reject food waste and support action to end global hunger and poverty. Amen.

May God bless you,

Father Angelito

LIVE THE LITURGY Inspiration for the week

God shows up in unexpected ways! Just when we think we have God's agenda figured out, another surprise comes. Expecting to find God only in some places hinders us from finding Him everywhere. Who would have thought that a young boy's few loaves and fishes would feed thousands of people? The disciples were probably just as amazed as everyone else when this feast appeared before them. Sometimes, we find it difficult to believe that God can do amazing things with something small and simple. Yet, grasping this truth is really at the heart of understanding the power of the Eucharist. Having the Body and Blood of Christ made present for us is one amazing wonder. Actually being fed and nourished by that gift is another. Now being able to become what we have eaten, God can do tremendous things with the simple, humble gifts of our lives. All we have to do is realize that God dwells within us. When we do, then everyone we encounter and everything we do has the power to become a sacramental moment. When done with great love even the smallest gesture can be multiplied exponentially. Now, that's amazing!

AND NOT TO COUNT
THE COST.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR GRANDPARENTS AND THE ELDERLY

July 25, 2021

I AM WITH YOU ALWAYS (cf. Mt. 28:20)

Pope Francis has established a World Day of Prayer for Grandparents and the Elderly, which will take place on July 25, 2021. It is intended to foster greater recognition for their role and vocation in passing on their Catholic faith to the next generations.

PRAYER FOR GRANDPARENTS AND THE ELDERLY

Lord Jesus, you were born of the Virgin Mary, the daughter of Saints Joachim and Anne.

Look with love on grandparents and the elderly all over the world. Please protect them.

They are a source of enrichment for families, for the Church, and for all of society.

Please support them. As they grow older, may they continue to be for their families and loved one's strong pillars of Gospel faith, guardians of noble domestic ideals, and living treasuries of sound religious traditions.

Make them teachers of wisdom and courage, that they may pass on to future generations the fruits of their mature human and spiritual experience. Amen.

The first step for Infant Baptisms at St. Catherine of Siena Parish is our Baptism Preparation Class.

Upcoming, in person, session for new parents:

Wednesday, August 4, 2021
