FROM THE DESK OF THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

I believe that most of us are tired of the COVID-19 pandemic. Not to mention all the casualties, fatalities, positive cases, and ongoing issues we have experienced due to this public health crisis. One of the questions we hear is when is this going to end? Our parish is blessed to have beautiful grounds and a fantastic building complex. We have announced in this past weekend Masses that we as a parish will tentatively collaborate with the state government and Catholic Charities to be the site for a vaccination center. This partnership is for our parishioners and the greater community considering that we are centrally located in the Western Monmouth area of the state.

A lot of support and help is expected from us as a parish community by spreading the word and promoting the campaign to those who are not yet vaccinated for several reasons. Some people are hesitant to get the shot as they are not sure of the side effects. It is not surprising that some are a bit scared of the needle. The government, the church, and all other institutions are doing their best to achieve herd immunity. We have to do our part by being an agent and instrument for the goal that everyone is looking forward to. That is to call us back to normalcy—what a beautiful opportunity to show our strong desire to overcome this virulent virus.

Prayers and good intentions are of utmost importance; however, we also have to abide by the existing protocols since we are not there yet, as the virus is still in our midst. Let us manifest in our words, actions, and lifestyle; there is hope, and we can defeat this deadly evil if we are together firmly and determined. Again, the dates are tentative, and there will be more upcoming announcements as we move forward.

FEAST OF THE ASCENSION OF OUR LORD JESUS

Do we live our lives with the feeling of being locked in? Do we fail to have an accurate picture of the vast horizon and the infinite possibilities that Jesus has opened up for us? The Feast of the Ascension is an open invitation to see everything from a broader perspective. Christ, our brother and savior, lived like anyone of us, surrounded by the various things of the world. But, unlike us, He always maintained a broad perspective. He was sure of the place He came from and the place he would be going. That is why He said the night before He died: "It was from the Father, I came when I entered this world: now I am on my way back to the Father." (Jn. 16:28)

No doubt Jesus had His share of fears, doubts, and uncertainties. There were times when He found it hard to see His way or find meaning in His life and work. But He would make it a point to seek promptly and earnestly for the light, and soon He would see things in the correct perspective. The glimpse of the glorious life beyond gave Him the necessary strength to encounter difficulties and trials.

When the time came for Him to leave this world, he took His apostles up to the top of Mount Olive so that they too could have a glimpse of the glory towards which He was going. He promised such glory would one day be theirs too if they remained faithful to what He had taught them. They were so fascinated by the sight that they kept gazing into heaven. Finally, a voice called them back to reality: "Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking into heaven?" They came back to the world with new insight, purpose, and direction.

Have we noticed that often enough, we live like ants, and details overcome our lives? We often get caught up in problems and weighed down by difficulties. We tend to lose our direction and find it difficult to see things from the correct perspective. We need to recall the vision our faith gives us regarding the goal and meaning of our lives. The celebration of the Feast of the Ascension reminds us of the commission given to us: "Go out into the world and preach the Good News to the whole creation." We need not shudder at such a responsibility, for we are not left alone to do this job.

Jesus has promised to be with us throughout our life. It is a very close collaboration that the Lord asks from us. Jesus has entrusted us with a twofold responsibility: the task of proclaiming the Good News to those who have never heard it and to be heralds of Jesus. He also entrusted us with a healing task, which means being concerned with all bodies and all minds, for He wished to bring health to the body and the soul.

From Your Ascension, Lord, let me draw strength to continue the mission You entrusted to me. Amen.

May God bless you,

Father Angelito

SUNDAY'S READINGS

FIRST READING:

Then they gave lots to them, and the lot fell upon Matthias, and he was counted with the eleven apostles. (Acts 1:26)

PSALM:

The Lord has set his throne in heaven. (Ps 103)
Or Alleluia.

SECOND READING:

Beloved, if God so loved us, we also must love one another. (1 Jn 4:11)

GOSPEL:

"Holy Father, keep them in your name that you have given me, so that they may be one just as we are one." (Jn 17:11b)

REFLECT

FIRST READING

In the immediate aftermath of Jesus' ascension, and as a means for healing within the group, Peter and the apostles discerned Matthias as the replacement for Judas. What are some areas in your faith life that need healing in order to feel whole?

SECOND READING

John testifies that his community has "come to know and to believe in the love God has for us." Do you think your faith community shares a similar conviction of faith in the love of God?

GOSPEL READING

We hear Jesus' prayer to his Father for the protection of the disciples, especially against "the evil one" in the world. Where do you personally experience evil in the world today?

LIVE THE LITURGY Inspiration for the week

When Jesus was physically with his disciples, he guarded and protected them. One of his greatest desires was that they share his joy completely. God's love is the source of all things and their sustenance. As we conduct the normal routines of our lives it is easy to get caught up in the immediacies of this world and lose focus. We become very self and worldly dependent, forgetting that God wishes to guard and protect us. The joy the resurrected Christ can offer cannot be found in this world. It takes a bit of faith to realize that God's will is a constant in our lives and that God desires only the sustenance and goodness of both our bodies and our souls. We need to trust in God's constant and rejuvenating love. This radical resurrection trust allows us to experience the joy of God's presence in all of the good and the bad, positive and negative, life building and life destructive events that we encounter. God remains where love remains.

“Your word is truth”

Religious Education at St. Catherine's Parish Completes Another Year!

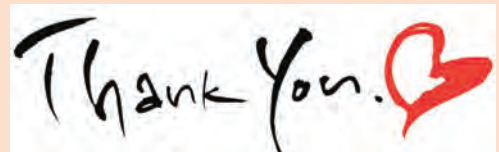

In the words of Queen Elizabeth, "this has not been a year filled with undiluted pleasure but we give thanks to our God for all that we have learned."

If you know one of our catechists, make sure to thank them for their faithful service to our families and parish! This year we presented our Religious Education Program virtually, with live, catechist-led classes each week. We met through our computers to pray, teach and prepare for the sacraments of Holy Communion and Confirmation.

We had a great year together and we thank our students and families for their active participation.

We thank our parish catechists for sharing the greatest gift that can be given to children. The gift of FAITH. The gift of KNOWLEDGE. May they always know that they are loved by an awesome God who will never leave them or turn away from them.

The gift of HOPE and PEACE. Let us share the message that we can "be still and know that He is with us." We are never alone even in challenging times.
