A Message from Fr. Angelito

Dear Friends in Christ,

Today the parish is celebrating its Autumn Festival as we offer hospitality in the Parish Hall after our 10 and 11:30 AM Masses. We invite you to come and join us not only with the food and snacks but to have a pleasant conversation as we meet and greet each other. This is also an excellent opportunity for us to meet our new parishioners who recently enrolled in the parish family. Let us spend some time and effort to have camaraderie and fellowship as acquaintances and friends.

A big word of thanks to our youth and adult volunteers who have shared their precious time and effort in preparing the AUTUMN FESTIVAL. We truly appreciate your help and support in making this event a joyful and warm experience.

Tuesday, November 1, is the Feast of All Saints, a Holy Day of Obligation. We will celebrate the Mass at 9 AM and 7 PM in the Church of St. Catherine. The saints are the incredible heroes of our faith. We ask for their assistance and intercession as they are our vessels and bridge to God the Father in heaven. Let us emulate and take them as our models in our personal and spiritual lives.

Wednesday, November 2, is the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed (All Souls Day). We will commemorate with Vigil Light Candles Ceremony at the celebration of the Mass at 7 PM in the Church of St. Catherine. The bereaved families of our deceased friends and relatives of last year and this year will be present to light the candles as we pray fervently for the repose of their souls. Eternal Rest Grant Unto Them, O Lord, and Let Perpetual Light Shine Upon Them. May they Rest in God's Peace. May the Souls of all the Faithful Departed Rest in Peace. Amen.

THIRTY FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

God does not punish the wicked and the sinners; instead, He spares them. He is merciful and merciful not only to the sinners in Israel but to sinners everywhere. He is merciful because he loves. Because He loved everything, he created everything, and because he loves, he sustains everything in life.

We heard the story of Zacchaeus in the Gospel. His story illustrates all truths. Zacchaeus is a despicable person for others, but not for Jesus, the Son of God, Lover of Life. For Jesus came that we may have life, life in abundance (Jn. 10:10). Therefore, Jesus cannot but save him. For he is not just a hated tax collector. That is his accidental and superficial self. His authentic, God-given self-identity is this: as a son of Abraham. However, one may disfigure and even destroy oneself. Deep down, we are children of God—created, loved, sustained, held by God, the lover of life. Jesus assured Zacchaeus, "Today, salvation has come to this house." Salvation, in simple language, means fullness of life, sharing to one's maximum capacity of God's own life and love, God's friendship.

Satan, the enemy of God, man, and life, deceives us. The result is sin. Sin separates us from God and damages or destroys our life and friendship with God, the lover of life. The second reading gives us more thoughts and relevant words. "That's why we always pray for you. We ask our God to make you worthy of the life he has called you to live. May he fulfill all your desire and goodness by his power and complete your work in faith."

God's glory is man fully alive. –St. Irenaeus. Lord and lover of life, instill in me a love for life. Amen.

May God bless you,

Father Angelito

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Saint Wolfgang of Ratisbon (now Regensburg) was born around 934 in Swabia, Germany. The son of a wealthy family, he was tutored in the home before he studied at the Monastery of Reichenau and Wurtzburg. In 956 he elected to go to Trier with his friend, Henry, who was appointed archbishop there. Wolfgang served as a teacher in the cathedral school at Trier.

After his friend's death, he became a Benedictine monk joining a monastery in Augsburg. There he led the school which flourished under his hand and was ordained in 968. In 972 he was sent to be a missionary to the pagan Magyar tribes (Hungarian clans). The Christmas of 972 he was appointed Bishop of Regensburg, near Munich, by Emperor Otto II, the post he would hold until his death.

The new Bishop continued to wear his Benedictine habit and held to the austerities of monastic life. He preached and worked at reform and took such care of the poor he was called "the Great Almoner." The saint also tutored the future Holy Roman Emperor, St. Henry II.

Saint Wolfgang died in 994 while traveling Austria, in the town of Puppington near Linz. He was canonized in 1052.

Bishop O'Connell's series on the Eucharist to launch Oct. 18

In a new five-part series on the Eucharist, Bishop David M. O'Connell, C. M., highlights "many aspects of the inexhaustible gift and mystery of the Holy Eucharist as the Body and Blood of the Lord Jesus Christ drawn from Scripture and Tradition."

Titled "Catechetical Series on the Eucharist," the segments will begin Oct. 18, the Feast of St. Luke. An installment will drop each week in text, video and podcast across all diocesan digital platforms.

The entire series will be printed in the November issue of The Monitor Magazine.

The five installments of the series will cover:

Preface and Part One (Oct. 18) • Eucharist as "mystery" and "reality"; faith as a supernatural gift; Jesus' words, "Do this in memory of me," as the institution of the Sacrament of Eucharist

Part Two (Oct. 25) • Catechesis as necessary for belief in the Real Presence of Jesus; Scripture accounts of God's presence among his people

Part Three (Nov. 1) • Excerpts from great theologians, saints, Scripture, emphasizing the unchanging fundamental belief in the Eucharist

Part Four (Nov. 8) • Excerpts from Papal, Vatican II, U.S. Bishop's documents demonstrating continuity and constancy of Eucharistic doctrine

Part Five (Nov. 15) • Eucharistic Lexicon including words, terms and expressions describing or referring to Holy Eucharist or its celebration

The "Catechetical Series on the Eucharist" will be available in text, video and podcast (English and Spanish) and can be accessed at DioceseofTrenton.org/eucharist-series or by scanning the QR code. It will also be posted to TrentonMonitor.com; TrentonMonitor.com/peces (Spanish), and the Diocese's facebook, twitter and Instagram pages.

REASONS WHY TO REGISTER IN THE PARISH

Registration is the official way we join a parish community. Some people think that because they attend a particular parish they automatically belong.

Registration is a commitment to community, a way to be included in the religious, social and ministerial activities of the parish. Registration shows you belong. It is also necessary for certain benefits and administrative purposes, like scheduling sacraments, obtaining a Sponsor/ Godparent Certificate and Letter of Eligibility, and donation statements for your income tax returns. Most importantly, it lets the parish count on you, to call on you to assist in its mission.

Registering in the parish is simple. It just requires signing up, formally enrolling yourself by contacting the Parish Office. Young adults 18 and over who are still living at home with their parents, or attend college, are recommended to register in their own name. Thank You.

Of the Word

The Message is Shared in Age-Appropriate Ways

Children ages 4 – 8 gather together to attend our Children's Liturgy of the Word, sometimes called CLOW. The program lets children listen to the readings at age appropriate level and use coloring sheets as a way to emphasize the message of the day's Gospel.

Discovering the Gospel Message

Just before our first reading, the children are called to the front of the church and greeted by our celebrant. They and the Ministry Leader are then dismissed with a blessing to discover what the Gospel message has to say to them. They gather in Classroom 1 for the program. Following the Liturgy of the Word, the children return to their seats in the church to celebrate the Liturgy of the Eucharist with their families.

Just sign in with the Ministry Leader before the start of Mass

SHARING THE GOSPEL

Zacchaeus had gotten very rich by taking money from his neighbors, so nobody liked him. He was very lonely and sad. When Jesus talked to him, Zacchaeus felt special. When Jesus ate dinner with Zacchaeus, Jesus showed that he was a real friend. When Zacchaeus felt God's love, he was truly happy for the first time. Jesus gave him what he really wanted - friendship - so he gave extra money back to his neighbors.

PRAYER

Dear God, help me to see that real happiness comes from loving Jesus, not money.

Fit this Gospel message into the empty squares:

I want to stay with you today.
