A Message from our Pastor

Dear Friends in Christ,

HAPPY EASTER EVERYONE!

God speaks: “God raised Him from the dead on the third day and caused Him to be seen” (Acts 10:40).

EASTER SUNDAY OF THE RESURRECTION OF JESUS

A story is told of a child who began to read the Gospels. As her reading proceeded, she became more interested in the life of Jesus. Suddenly, she ran out of her room crying hysterically. She ran into the arms of her alarmed mother. She burst out, “They killed him. They killed him.” Her mother comforted her and then whispered to her, “Now go back and read what happened afterwards.”

Unlike the child, we are familiar with the rest. The death of Jesus is not the end of the story; there is one more chapter about victory and new life. Jesus rises from the dead in all glory and majesty. This is the Easter Good News, the core of our faith.

Jesus’ resurrection easily draws the picture of the empty tomb in our minds. It goes along with the simple declaration, “He is not here” (Mk. 16:6). It simply means that Jesus lives. He is present and active in and around us. “He is not here” opens the quest for the living Lord. He is close to us, even when we think He is dead or far away. All we need to do is to look for Him with the eyes of faith, with believing hearts.

Easter is a celebration of a present reality. The reality is that Jesus lives among us and within us right here and now. Therefore, there is no need to worry or to fear.

With Jesus, we know that we are journeying, not to sunset, but to sunrise. In reality, our life’s journey is a journey to the eternal Easter in heaven.

Easter is a celebration of future hope. This future hope is that we will all share in the fulness of the New Life. Think of the glorious future that awaits each of us, “For us, our homeland is in heaven, and from heaven comes the Savior we are waiting for, the Lord Jesus Christ, and He will transfigure these wretched bodies of ours into copies of His glorious body” (Phil 3:20). Do you live like one who believes in such a glorious future? If you do, surely everything in this world takes on a new perspective.

Easter is a transformation that can bring about in our lives. It changes the shame of sin into forgiveness, the paralysis of despair into hope. Today we celebrate the victory of good over evil, the victory of life over death. The risen Lord gives us the grace to share in His victory and to live in His victory in our lives. It is easy for us to get bogged down in the everyday events of the world. The challenge is to be part of the victory of Christ and celebrate our life as a personal Easter.

Risen Lord, may Your resurrection lift my drooping spirit. Amen.

May God bless you,
Father Angelito
