Our Pastor's Sunday Message

Seventh Sunday of Easter

Dear Friends in Christ,

FEAST OF THE ASCENSION OF JESUS

Today, we celebrate the feast of the Ascension of our Lord. Forty days after His resurrection, Jesus took His disciples to Bethany near Jerusalem, adjoining the Mount of Olives, and as He was blessing them, He ascended into heaven. Hence, the Ascension of Jesus marks the end of Jesus' earthly life and at the same time it marks the beginning of His heavenly life, and the pledge of His Second Coming.

Jesus led His disciples to the Mount of Olives and as He was blessing them, He parted from them. It was a farewell tender of Jesus to his disciples. He had been with them for three long years, and now, having accomplished the purpose for which He had come, He, now, had to depart from them.

The Ascension completes a cycle in the earthly life of Jesus. The Incarnation and the Ascension meet at a point. From heaven he came to take the human form and back to heaven he went when he ascended. The Incarnation is the coming down of God from heaven and the Ascension is the going up of God to heaven. What the Incarnation began, the Ascension completed: the earthly life of Jesus.

The Resurrection and the Ascension of Jesus must be viewed not as two separate and parallel events in the life of Jesus, but as one. The Resurrection must be viewed as the beginning of the line and the Ascension as the end. The Resurrection is the beginning, and the Ascension is the natural completion of the Resurrection of Christ. William Barclay rightly said, "It was unthinkable that the appearances of Jesus should grow fewer and fewer until finally they petered out. That would have effectively wrecked the faith of men. There had to come a day of dividing when the Jesus of earth finally became the Christ of heaven." What began with the Resurrection of Jesus could have no other conclusion than the Ascension. The Ascension is the culmination of the Resurrection of Jesus. It is the perfect end of the glorification of the earthly life of Jesus.

My dear brethren, the Lord who ascended into heaven has given us a task – to pattern our lives upon His teachings and to complete the task of spreading His name and His message to all the people of the world. May the Lord's Spirit Who abides with us aid us in this great task. Amen.

May God bless you,

Father Angelito

Love

To love is to learn how to follow Christ together.

To love is to learn how to follow Christ together. Love is not just a feeling—it's a daily decision to walk with others in faith, humility, and compassion. As Christ loved us, we are called to love one another: with patience in difficulty, generosity in need, and mercy in weakness.

When we love as Christ loves, we become instruments of His peace and healing in the world. True Christian love unites us, strengthens the Church, and draws others closer to God.

Let us love not just in words, but in action—serving, forgiving, and building each other up in Christ.

Devotions, Explained

Just as praying before a meal, praying after a meal is meant to inspire in Christians an attitude of thanksgiving and an acknowledgment of our dependence on God.

Though it is a less common practice in the modern world, early Church fathers like Tertullian and St. Jerome extolled the importance of praying after a meal, and the Christian poet Prudentius composed hymns for before and after meals ("ante cibum" and "post cibum").

There are no "official" prayers for after a meal, but the most common one said by Catholics is this: "We give thee thanks, almighty God, for all your benefits, who lives and reigns forever and ever. And may the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God rest in peace." It is a benediction which recalls our perpetual fellowship with the entire Body of Christ, including those who have passed from this life.

Jesus said to his disciples: "Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day. You are witnesses of these things." - LK 24:46, 28

Gospel Today
The Ascension of the Lord | Luke 24:46-53

Jesus tells His disciples that with His death and resurrection scripture has been fulfilled. As witnesses, when the Holy Spirit comes upon them, they will go out and teach in the name of Jesus, repentance and forgiveness to all nations. Then Jesus led them out, raised His hands and blessed them and was taken into heaven.

While he was blessing them,
he left them and was taken up into heaven.
