Our Pastor's Sunday Message

Sixth Sunday of Easter

Dear Friends in Christ,

The Parish Religious Education program has joyfully concluded another fruitful year, celebrating the First Holy Communion and the Sacrament of Confirmation with our young girls and boys. It has been a privilege and a blessing to walk alongside them in their journey of faith.

We extend our heartfelt congratulations to the children, their parents, and our dedicated catechists. We look forward to seeing our families return regularly to the celebration of Sunday Mass and to continued participation in the sacramental life of the Church.

We are especially grateful to our volunteers, catechists, and aides whose time, dedication, and God-given talents made this year's program possible. Your service and generosity are deeply appreciated—thank you for being instruments of God's love and grace in our parish.

As a gesture of our sincere appreciation, we will offer a special recognition and blessing for all Religious Education volunteers during the 11:30 A.M. Mass on Sunday, June 1. We warmly invite you to attend and be honored by our parish community for the vital role you have played in forming the faith of our children. Your presence will be a blessing, and we look forward to celebrating with you at the Lord's table.

The Nature of Peace

The peace, which Christ gives, is not the peace, which the world gives. When Christ says 'peace', He gives peace, but when people say 'peace' they only wish peace. Man can only erect banners of goodwill and peace, but Christ could impart that peace. Christ's word conveys peace to us. What the world only wishes, Christ has the power to give.

The peace which the world gives is only transitory. What the world gives will last only for a short time, but the peace Jesus gives, like all His blessings, is eternal. Nothing can take away that peace – neither sickness, nor hunger, not poverty, not plenty, nor life, nor death.

The peace the world gives is very shallow. It is a thin cover over the vast sea of restlessness. It is at most an excitement, but real, lasting peace is given by Christ and Christ only.

Possessing Christ and His peace, does not necessarily preclude us from experiencing the tumults and conflicts in our lives. There are many things in the world which will disturb us to the very end, and many things from within us will surge and threaten to ruffle our peace. We must constantly fight against such things and make efforts not to lose Christ's given peace. In everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let our requests be made known to God, so that nothing may break the calm we have. Possessing Christ will enable us to calm the storms, which lash against us. May the peace, which Christ promised His disciples, reside in our hearts and in our families.

May Christ's love and command reign supreme in all the aspects of our lives, so that we may enjoy His peace. Amen.

May God bless us,

Father Angelito

Parish Office is closed on

Love

To love is to learn how to follow Christ together.

To love is to learn how to follow Christ together. Love is not just a feeling—it's a daily decision to walk with others in faith, humility, and compassion. As Christ loved us, we are called to love one another: with patience in difficulty, generosity in need, and mercy in weakness.

When we love as Christ loves, we become instruments of His peace and healing in the world. True Christian love unites us, strengthens the Church, and draws others closer to God.

Let us love not just in words, but in action—serving, forgiving, and building each other up in Christ.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

Reflect and Respond

1st Reading Question

We hear how the church in Jerusalem resolved their conflicts through dialogue and compromise.

When has your faith community had to resolve a conflict?

2nd Reading Question

As John's final vision continues, he sees the splendor and glory of God lighting the city of Jerusalem.

Can you think of a time when you felt really close to God?

Gospel

Jesus taught his disciples that the Holy Spirit will be sent to believers to teach them and remind them of his words.

Can you share a time when you have felt inspired by the Holy Spirit?

Live the Liturgy

Inspiration of the Week

God makes His dwelling with those who love Him and keep His word. We must all make our lives places where God feels welcome to dwell. Our actions, our words, our decisions must all say in one voice: "Come, Holy Spirit!"

Our Lady of Perpetual Help, Explained

Our Lady of Perpetual Help refers both to a title conferred upon the Blessed Mother as well as to a corresponding icon that dates to the late Middle Ages. Painted on wood, the original icon has a Byzantine style and depicts the Blessed Mother holding the Christ Child. She is flanked by St. Michael and St. Gabriel, who hold the instruments of Christ's passion, including a spear, nails and the Crown of Thorns. In the image, Christ seemingly leans into his mother's embrace for comfort and strength as he contemplates these objects.

The icon is thought to have originated in Crete, but for 300 years was venerated in the Church of San Matteo in Merulana in Rome. Blessed Pope Pius IX entrusted the image to the Order of Redemptorists, who moved it to the Church of St. Alphonsus. He later established the Feast of Our Lady of Perpetual Help on June 27.

The Solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord Jesus will be celebrated in all the Latin-rite dioceses of New Jersey, Sunday, June 1, 2025.
